Job Summary and Requirements:

Community Services works to build vibrant, healthy and sustainable Yukon communities. The department does this through the provision of a diverse range of services to Yukon communities. We are committed to our core values! At Community Services we believe Respect is the foundation of our organization, Collaboration is achieved through inclusive approaches and sharing of diverse perspectives, Service Excellence is the standard for all our interactions, and Integrity is achieved through honest, committed and accountable public service.

This role provides support to Protective Services division in their mandate to protect people, property and the development of sustainable, resilient Yukon communities and infrastructure. This position is responsible for advising the Assistant Deputy Minister and branch Directors on matters of strategic importance to the division. This may include leading strategic planning processes and community engagement initiatives as well as drafting briefing notes and casework responses. The Advisor will also lead a culture of professional development and continuous improvement within the division.

The ideal candidate will build community relationships, will be client focused, detail oriented, and will have experience developing policies, directives, and legislation. They will also bring knowledge of First Nations agreements and the ability to build strong relationships with varying stakeholders and reach agreements on mutually beneficial options. This position requires someone with excellent analytical skills, written and verbal communication skills, and will have experience with high level strategic planning, as well as experience briefing senior management leaders.
